RE: In re Perforadora Oro Negro, S. de R.L. de C.V., et al., Case No. 18-11094 (SCC) (Jointly Administered) (the "Chapter 15 Proceedings")

Dear Judge Chapman:

I, José Gerardo Badín Cherit, the appointed liquidator of the estates of Perforadora Oro Negro, S. de R.L. de C.V. and Integradora de Servicios Petroleros Oro Negro, S.A.P.I. de C.V. (collectively, the "Debtors") and the recently recognized Foreign Representative in the Chapter 15 Proceedings, make reference to the letter filed with this Court on December 11, 2019 requesting a stay of all deadlines in the Chapter 15 Proceedings until January 11, 2019.

I hereby respectfully request an extension of such stay for an additional thirty (30) days to allow time for my counsel and myself to continue to study and assess the file of the Chapter 15 Proceedings and comply with the requirements. I have engaged Duane Morris LLP ("Duane Morris") as my counsel, which has begun a review and analysis of the case and the various adversary proceedings. Duane Morris has also engaged in discussions with Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan, LLP ("Quinn") and creditors' counsel Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP ("Paul Weiss"). Quinn and Paul Weiss have both been advised that I am making this request for an extension of the stay.

Respectfully,

José Gerardo Badín Cherit

Request granted for extension to February 13, 2020.

Dated: January 13, 2020
